

Consultant Automic / UC 4-Consultant, Process-Automation, Job-Scheduling

As part of a new appointment for an IT consultancy company with about 70 permanent employees headquartered in Salzgitter, we are looking for an Automic / UC4 specialist for the branch in Bremen for the Business Process Automation division. We are looking for a person who has relevant work experience and as a problem solver to meet the needs of customers.

The advisory role is a key task that requires good perceptiveness and proactive collaboration with the clients. The objective is the sustainable improvement of the customer and delivery of service as well as the optimization and automation of the processes. The training of the employees concerned is also an essential part of the position.

Your starting point could be Bremen, the Copenhagen area or Skåne /Sweden

Your tasks

- Advice and support of customers in technical IT scheduling and processes
- Development and creation of new applications using Automic / UC4 – the company is preferred company of Automic
- Cooperation in planning within sales and technology
- Programming of the appropriate IT tools
- Responsible for the economic, timely and quality-oriented processing of projects
- Support and support with technical questions and problems also in other IT products of the company
- You have a lasting impact on the company's innovation

Your qualifications

- Completed study of computer science, business informatics or a comparable education in IT
- Ideally several years of professional and project experience
- Profound knowledge of IT technologies Job Scheduling, Automic, UC4, Linux / UNIX system knowledge, Windows Server, Mainframe / Host, SAP R3 databases, ORACLE, MySQL, managed file transfer, FTP communication, TCP / IP, Telnet, Software Shell, awk, sed, Java, SQL, Perl
- Very good analytical and communication skills
- Self-responsible with a confident appearance
- Traveling – Scandinavia
- Language – Danish and English

You can expect challenging tasks and independent work in a modern and growth-oriented company. The company is successful, offers you good personal prospects and an income that is well-endowed and performance-oriented.

Please send your application stating your salary expectations and possible entry date as a pdf or Word file by e-mail to: kh@exactrecruitment.com. In advance, Mr. Klaus Hartstock is available by telephone 0171 49 13 036.

We look forward to receiving your application and, of course, guarantee discretion.

Your Exact Recruitment Team